Foreword

Because in coming years the miles which separate you from your many friends and Alma Mater may be many, may this book ever help you relive your pleasant and prosperous days at U.C.A. This is the sincere wish of your

Dedication

To you, our parents, whose faith in us has been a constant inspiration to splendid achievement; who, out of the largeness of your hearts have made sweeter our pathway, and have set an example of Christian living, we are pleased to dedicate this annual.

In Memoriam

Jim Mehrer

*"I have been through the valley of weeping
The valley of sorrow and pain;
But the God of all comfort was with me
At hand to uphold and sustain*

*Oft we shrink from the purging and pruning
Forgetting the Husbandman knows
That the deeper the cutting and paring
The richer the cluster that grows.*

*As we travel through life's shadowed valley
Fresh springs of His love ever rise
And we learn that our sorrows and losses
Are blessings just sent in disguise.'*

Jim's presence with us for a few brief months was indeed a blessing. Though it seems that we cannot understand why one so helpful and inspiring should be torn from our midst by our cruel foe, "Death," we trust God in knowing that He knows best, and we thank Him for having had Jim's companionship for a fleeting moment.

I Came to Academy

Principal's Message

Dear Student Friend

To venture is a rewarding characteristic of youth! This quality, while at times regarded critically, becomes a foundation stone upon which rest the future of a nation and our church.

Through it young men and women dare to explore new worlds of science; traverse lonely wastes in the interest of industry, seeking a world's mineral and natural wealth, and by its drive establish the new news of business that make America strong!

Today our Church needs you—its youth—to venture for God. In missions of mercy, as messengers of a soon-coming Saviour to the uttermost parts of the earth. You are challenged daily to live the life of a true christian, "Conquering and Going Forth to Conquer."

Sincerely Your Principal
